

UNIT II

Do you think birds find people funny?
Let's listen to what the robin and the jay have to say.

Bird Talk

'Think...' said the robin,
'Think...' said the jay,
sitting in the garden
talking one day.

'Think about people
the way they grow:
they don't have feathers
at all, you know.

They don't eat beetles,
they don't grow wings,
they don't like sitting on wires and things.'

'Think!' said the robin.
'Think!' said the jay.
'Aren't people funny
to be that way?'

New words

beetles, sitting, wires, funny

NINA AND THE BABY SPARROWS

There was great joy in Nina's house. Nina's aunt was getting married. Nina, her father, mother and little brother were all going to Delhi for a wedding. Everyone was happy, except Nina.

Her mother took her to the market to buy a new dress.

"What colour would you like?" Mother asked.

"I don't want a new dress, Mother," said Nina.

"Salwar-kameez then?"

Nina shook her head.

"What about those lovely white shoes you saw last week?"

"I don't want those, either. Thank you, Mother."

Nina's mother was upset, but she said nothing. They went back home and had lunch. After lunch mother came and sat near Nina. "What is it, child?" she asked. "Why did you say 'no' to everything?"

"Mother, I don't want to go to the wedding."

"But why?"

Nina said nothing. Instead, two big tears rolled down her cheeks. Mother put her arms around Nina. "Don't cry, my pet," she said. "Why don't you tell me what's bothering you?"

More tears rolled down Nina's cheeks. "Mother," she said, "there's a sparrow's nest on the bookshelf in my room. And there are two baby sparrows in the nest."

"I see..." said mother.

"They're just beginning to get their feathers. And growing up makes them so hungry. All day long they cry 'cheep-cheep', asking for food."

"I see!" said Mother.

"If we go, the whole place will be locked. And how will papa and mama sparrows feed their babies?"

"Oh Nina," cried Mother, giving her a big hug. "Is that why you don't want to go to the wedding? But that's no problem at all. We'll leave the window open."

"Oh, can we, Mother? Can we? Really?"

"Yes, yes. We'll remove all your things from the room and lock the door on the outside. So the house will be perfectly safe and papa and mama sparrows can come and go freely, too. Just think, Nina...

while you enjoy yourself at
the wedding, the baby sparrows will be getting nice and fat in their nest. Good idea, isn't it?"

It was a good idea.
When Nina came back from the wedding, there were two plump little sparrows flying all over the room. And wasn't Nina thrilled!

SUGGESTIONS FOR CLASSROOM TEACHING

- Warm up activity can be done by reading the pre-reading questions aloud to introduce the theme or topic of the poem.

Read and re-read the poem aloud laying stress on certain words and phrases.

Take children for a Nature walk outdoors. Point to the birds they may see on the trees or flying about. Encourage them to look for birds and listen attentively to their sounds. Let the children express their thoughts and feelings freely.

- Talk about differences between different kinds of birds, e.g. in size, shape, colour, beaks, sounds etc.

Discuss how birds are different from us. People can be different from each other too. Talk about differences with special reference to children with special needs, e.g. visually handicapped or physically challenged. Discuss how such children can excel in other fields like music, art etc.

- Read the story aloud to the children. The story may be retold with the help of the pictures. Encourage children to guess the meanings of difficult words, before you explain.

Read instructions for the bird activity and help children to make a bird-bath and a feeding corner. Show them how to make finger puppets. Explain the position and names of the fingers to children. Encourage theme-based conversation.

- Children could be asked to bring pictures of birds to class. Help them to make small charts and put these up for the class to see.

Discuss with children how sparrows are becoming fewer in cities and towns. What would this mean for us?
