The Milkman's Cow

The milkman's cow was in a bad mood. It sat in the middle of the road and refused to move.

The milkman begged the cow to get up. "The children are waiting for their milk to help them grow strong. Please get up," he pleaded. He pulled and tugged and prayed.

The policeman and the milkman pulled and tugged and prayed. But the cow wasn't going anywhere that day.

Along came a grocer with bags of potatoes and peas. He said, "I'll move this cow with the greatest of ease."

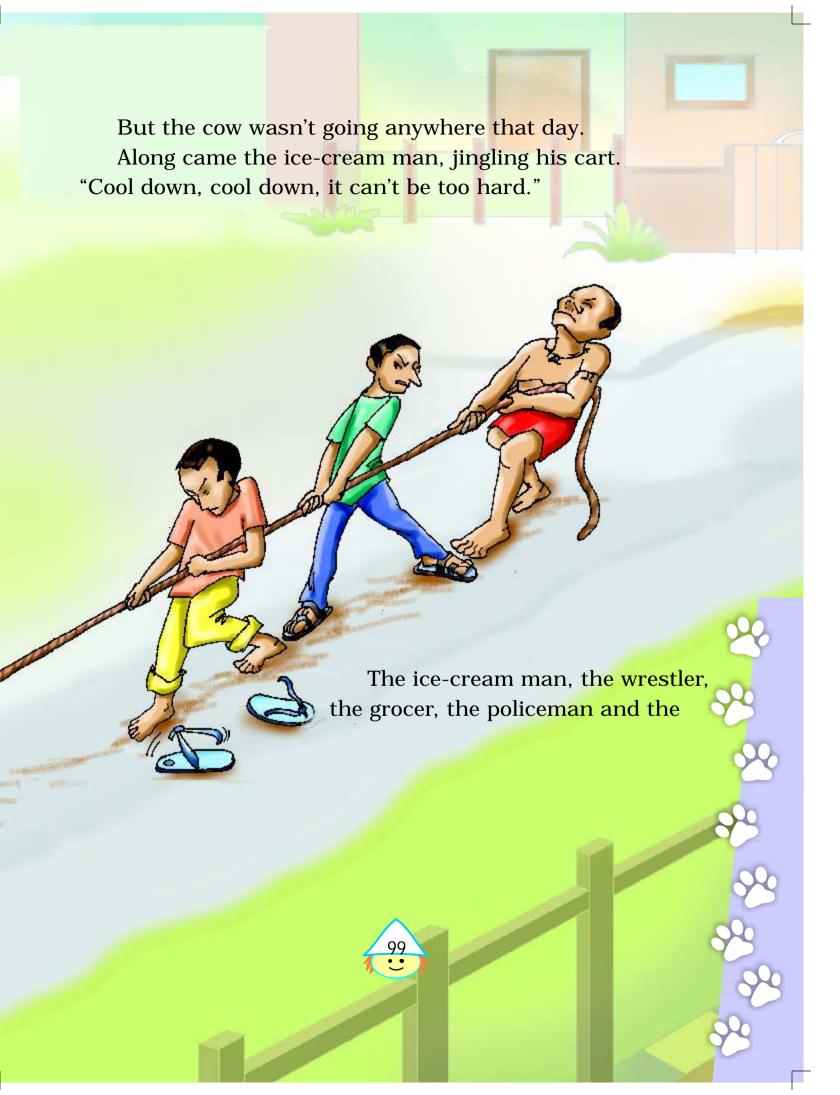

The grocer, the policeman and the milkman pulled and tugged and prayed.

But the cow wasn't going anywhere that day.

Along came a wrestler, his muscles gleaming in the sun. He said, "I have the strength of ten horses, so this should be fun."

The wrestler, the grocer, the policeman and the milkman pulled and tugged and prayed.

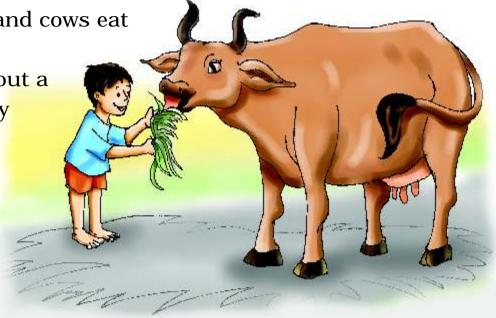

He held out a sheaf of tasty green. The cow began to chew. He slowly led her to the side, for he knew what to do.

The grocer clapped, the policeman twirled his stick in joy.

The wrestler grinned. The ice-cream man whooped at the cleverness of the boy.

The milkman happily clattered his pail.

Being kind and loving is best, for force and strength can fail.

Unit 6
Poem: The Donkey

I had a Little Pony

Story: The Milkman's Cow

Caring for animals

This Unit deals with the fact that kindness can work better than violence, force, pressure or anger. Children can also give examples about how they were angry at friends/parents/siblings, but calmed down when gentler action was taken. The teacher can emphasise this important value through other stories.

Warm up

THEME

The action of imitating insects and other tiny creatures as compared to big animals like the elephant/cow can be done.

Reading time

Repeat

Then

1. Children like to recite poetry together. Choral speaking helps children improve their speech, voice quality and pronunciation. class leader emphasise on facts (true and false)

3. Reading from library books

Sharing time

- Give the groups time to talk about the pictures of the poem. Have short conversations about the children's own experiences. The story of the cow shows that a child may not be able to do certain things but he can be clever enough to control a big animal like a cow.
- Encourage children to speak about the special things they would like to do but cannot. Sometimes 'cannot' can be turned into 'can'. A child can stand on his head through the practice of yoga. They may discuss other impossible situations for which solutions can be found.

Creative time

- Let the children make a list of the smaller creatures they see around the house and garden. Another list of the large animals can also be drawn up. It can be pointed out that all comparisons are relative and each creature has something special to share, give and celebrate.
- There can be other ways of showing kindness to animals besides offering food e.g. petting, cuddling, tending to injuries, refraining from hitting or kicking, stopping others from ill-treating and so on. Ask the children to write a few sentences about how they showed kindness to an animal.

Language corner

- Opposites, describing words and punctuation to be put on the language corner chart.
- The opposites are given at the end of a sentence. Ask the children to make their own sentences using the words can and cannot, fail and succeed, able and unable, and other similar words.

Environment: Project – Save the trees in the school compound; weekly watering of trees; clearing of weeds in the neighbourhood.
